November 2021

November Meeting

Our next meeting will be on Sunday, November 14, at 4:00 p.m. in Hopewell. The meeting will be inside, but we will maintain social distancing as far as possible (no elbow-to-elbow seating). We require attendees to be fully vaccinated (including boosters, if due), and masks are required. Seating is limited, but probably adequate for the number of people who typically appear. Please let us know if you are coming. If we do run short on space, preference will be given to (1) performers on the program, and (2) anyone else in the order in which we hear from you. We will confirm your place on the program when we receive your program information. Otherwise, please confirm by e-mail that space is available before leaving home.

We'll send a reminder, directions, and a request for program information a few days before the meeting.

Scheduling conflicts preclude meeting at the Westminster Conservatory this month, but we hope to return there in December. We would be happy to hear from volunteers who would be willing to host future meetings in other locations. ↓
