November Meeting

We will have a Zoom meeting on Sunday, November 13 at 4:00 p.m. (eastern time). Thanks to Rick Florio for hosting, and to Jeff Griesemer for covering the cost of using Zoom. Watch for a reminder and information on how to join the meeting next week.

We're still trying to find our way out of the pandemic and into whatever the new normal may be. We'd love to have your input on where, when, and how we should meet. If you have some ideas on what we should be doing and, more importantly, what you can do to make it happen, please write us at njguitarsociety@yahoo.com. J

Upcoming Concerts

Philadelphia Classical Guitar Society Presents Grisha Goryachev

Settlement Music School (free parking)
416 Queen St Philadelphia PA 19147
3:00 p.m. Sunday, November 6, 2022

Grisha Goryachev is renowned for his extraordinary musical sensitivity and technical virtuosity in both classical and flamenco styles. He is reviving the tradition of solo flamenco guitar in a concert setting that was practiced by legendary flamenco masters such as Ramón Montoya and Sabicas. Instead of merely copying these artists, he creates his own interpretations using dynamics and tone colors usually associated with classical guitar.

Sharon Isbin, guitar & Pacifica Quartet play Boccherini, Schwantner, and more

92Y, Kaufman Concert Hall, New York, NY. and streaming

Saturday, November 12, 7:30 p.m.

Proof of vaccination required. Live stream also available.

Boundary-defying multi-Grammy Award-winning guitarist Sharon Isbin joins us with one of her most treasured collaborators, the Grammy-winning Pacifica Quartet. Together, they reveal the colors and textures made possible by the combination of guitar and string quartet, performing an arrangement of Vivaldi's D-Major Concerto, the world premiere of Pulitzer Prize-winning American composer Joseph Schwantner's evocative Song of a Dreaming Sparrow, and Boccherini's spirited "Fandango" Guitar Quintet. Isbin adds solo performances of Brouwer's stunning El Decameron Negro, and selections by Turina and Piazzolla for a dream concert for guitar music lovers - and well beyond.
