May Meetings

Our in-person meeting this month will be on Saturday, May 10, at the Morris County Library in Whippany from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. Note that we're meeting at an unusual (for us) day and time, since the space is available only when the Library is open. Thanks to Library Director Darren O'Neill and the library staff for hosting, and to Marsha Rohe for organizing.

Our Zoom meeting will be on Sunday, May 11 at 4:00 p.m. (eastern time). Thanks to Gad Berger for hosting.

As usual, please watch for a Reminder with directions or instructions on joining the meeting a few days before each meeting. J

Tomas Rodriguez

Composer and guitarist Tomas Rodriguez weaves melodies and rhythms, navigating the intricate tapestry of his Spanish, Appalachian, and Peruvian heritage. Internationally known for his concert performances, he has also released three full length albums: “Guitarra de mi Alma”, “Dialogue”, and “Ruminations”. A sought after instructor and educator, at Guitarfest Tomas will share his cross cultural insights into classical guitar repertoire. Bring your guitar!

Ana Maria Rosado

Guitarist Ana María Rosado has travelled the world to concertize. She has released two solo compact discs, “We’ve got (poly)rhythm”, and “Salsa and Other Beats” (2010) which includes the premiere recordings of pieces by Jorge Morel. She was one of the select few to perform for the legendary Spanish guitarist Andrés Segovia in his last set of masterclasses. We are excited to host this wonderful artist of the guitar at our festival!

Guitar studies at William Paterson University

There are four basic tracks for music students at WPU: Performance, Education, Sound Engineering and Music Business. There are three music style areas to choose from when pursuing one of these tracks: Jazz, Classical and Pop. The accomplished guitar faculty at WPU includes Dave Stryker for Jazz guitar, Chris Sholar for Pop guitar, and Seth Himmelhoch for Classical guitar.
